

SURRENDER

Surrender

There's a way, to amend

When the sparks appear

Out there

They're not there... inside us.

Surrender

No one says, what is

When the sparks appear

Away

They're not there... inside us.

Surrender

On the way, to be

When away the sparks

Appear

They're not there... inside us.

And this is for the sake

The sake of love.

This is not right

Today the brightness...

Today the shine is out there

This is not right...

To still begin

When the light is there...

Surrender

There's a way, to amend

When the sparks appear

Out there

They're not there... inside us.

Surrender

On the way, to be.
