

WAITING TO SHINE

It's there in the fire
It's there in the fight
It's there in the shadow
Oh! Waiting just to shine.
It's there in the dirt
It's there in the mud
It's there in the sorrow
Oh! Waiting just to shine
Oh! Waiting just to shine.

The crowd is coming for more
I'm trying to see clear
These eyes are becoming dire
There's not hope here
The crowd stumbles again
I'm trying to be free
The eyes are turning on dark
The hope left us here.

It's there in the sun
It's down below us
It's trying to reach all
Oh! Waiting to surprise.
It's there in the speech
It's tempting us all
Invisible crawling
The boldness to seduce
Oh! waiting just to shine.

The crowd is coming for more
I'm trying to see clear
These eyes are becoming dire
There's not hope here
The crowd stumbles again
I'm trying to be free
The eyes are becoming dark
There's not hope here.

The crowd is coming for more.
